

USA National ODP Testing Results for March 2018

The 2000m individual singles time trial is used world wide as a measure of efficiency and how an athlete is "moving the boat". This test is important regardless if you are a 200m, a 500m or 1000m specialist. Due to water temp, current, tides, wind and etc. it likely that 2000m times will vary according to region. It is also important to consider improvement over time, the 800m Run, pull up tests and past race results.
